Teacher-in-Charge
Samsi College, Samsi, Malda

OUR HISTORY

Samsi college, the second oldest institution of Higher Education in the district of Malda and the first one in North Malda subdivision, was established on the 25th August, 1968 by its organizing Committee headed by the organizing President Sri Kamalakar Misra (I.A.S & District Magistrate, Malda) and its organizing Secretary Sri Sunil Kr. Misra (B.D.O., Ratua). Considering the constraints on Higher Education of students of North Malda, the said District Magistrate Sri kamalakar Misra proposed in 1967 the establishment of a College at Samsi. The eminent personalities of and around Samsi took constructive steps for this by donating money and land. The next year the College came in reality with its formal opening of classes on the 14th oct, 1968 at Samsi Agril High School. Within two years of its establishment, the College was able to construct its own temporary mud-building at the present site in the peaceful and natural environment of the historically place of Kandaran. The College is encircled and well-protected by a boundary wall and has a big play- ground, a boy's hostel, a Girl's Hostel and a pond for physicculture. More than 5000 students from the neighboring area and different districts of west Bengal study now in this College kandaran, the site of the College, has immensely historical and archaeological significance. It is a place where ancient and medieval chapters of history meet and where Hindus, Muslims & Christians live together in mutual understanding and communal brotherhood fostered by the College. A number of English medium schools have also been established around the College. On account of completing glorious 50 years, Samsi College celebrated its Golden Jubilee from 17th to 19th December 2018.

VISION:

Education is the key to develop a society and nation. It's the ray of hope for extremely backward classes. Samsi college is surrounded by extremely backward and marginalized classes of the society. We are committed to empower them through education. The college is dedicated to create excellence among the students enabling them to serve the society and nation.

MISSION:

- To provide quality education
- To impart deep knowledge of society and nation
- To create a generation who can contribute significantly to the society and nation building
- To create interest among the students to get enrolled in higher education
- To make the students creative and research oriented
- To provide a platform to the students to explore their talents & creativity.
- To focus on effective and efficient training of the students to enable them to reach the height of their aspiration in present day job market
